

How to participate in ABOHNS Continuing Certification Credits (MOC) through the AAOA's CME Activities

Starting in 2020, AAOA CME Programs Offer ABOHNS Continuing Certification (MOC) Part II: Self-Assessment credits. If you are interested in taking advantage of this added value to AAOA's CME activities, there are two steps you must take to participate and claim ABOHNS Continuing Certification Credits (MOC).

1. Set up Your AAOA Profile to Claim Continuing Certification Credits (MOC) – please go to step 2 if you have already set-up your profile to claim MOC credits.

- Login to your AAOA portal:
 - Visit <https://aaoa.cloud-cme.com/default.aspx>
 - Click Sign In in the upper left corner and enter your email and password
 - You can call the AAOA office at 202-955-5010 during regular business hours for assistance login into your AAOA Portal.
- Go to “My CME” (1)
- Click on “My Profile” (2)

The screenshot displays the AAOA Attendee Portal interface. At the top left is the AAOA logo and the text "The American Academy of Otolaryngic Allergy". At the top right, it says "<< Return to Main Site" and "Welcome AAOA Member". A navigation bar contains links for "Sign Out", "Live Courses", "Online Courses", "Resources", "About", "Contact", and "Help". A "My CME" button is highlighted in yellow, with a red arrow labeled (1) pointing to it. A dropdown menu is open below "My CME", listing "Faculty", "Profile", "Transcript", "Evaluations & Certificates", "Registrations & Receipts", "Tests", and "Syllabus". A red arrow labeled (2) points to the "Profile" option. Below the navigation bar, there is a large image of blue, spiky spherical structures. To the right of the image, there is a welcome message: "Welcome to the AAOA Attendee Portal. You can register for upcoming AAOA events, download your AAOA transcript, and even renew your membership dues by clicking the buttons below." Below this message are two buttons: "RENEW DUES ONLINE" and "AAOA LEADERSHIP PORTAL". At the bottom of the page, there is a note: "(note that only AAOA Leadership has access to the AA)". At the very bottom, there is a celebratory message: "Celebrating our 75th year of member service, the American Academy of Otolaryngic Allergy (AAOA) represents over 2400".

2. Select the MOC Credit product when registering for a CME activity

Once your profile is set up to claim ABOHNS Continuing Certification credits, you are eligible participate in the ABOHNS Continuing Certification (MOC) Part II: Self-Assessment credits.

The next step to claim Continuing Certification credits for an AAOA CME activity is to select the MOC Credit product when registering.

- When getting to the “Registration” part of the process, you must first select the registration type (1).
 - As a reminder, AAOA members can register for AAOA courses and on-demand Clinical Insight Modules at a discount rate, so you must be logged into your AAOA portal to receive AAOA member rate.
- Next check the box to claim MOC credits (2). By clicking the box, AAOA will know that you want ABOHNS Continuing Certification credits to be claimed for the specific activity you are registering for.

Registration Type

2020 Basic Course Fellow Member - $1,100.00 ← (1)

Claim MOC Credit

Claim 2020 Basic Course MOC Credits - $0.00 ← (2)

By clicking the box above I provide permission for my MOC completion information to be shared and transmitted to the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME).

Note: To claim MOC credit your AAOA profile must be set to claim MOC credits and contain your ABOto Diplomate ID and Date of Birth.

Update Your AAOA Profile Here

After attending an AAOA activity, you will need complete the test (Clinical Insight Modules) or the post-course survey (live or virtual activities) to claim your CME credits.

The AAOA will provide attendees up to 30 days to update their profile to claim MOC credits and take the post-course survey or test. After the 30 days, the AAOA will submit the participation completion information to ACCME and may not be able to assist in reporting MOC credits after that time.

Additional Information

As a pilot year, the AAOA making the participation in ABOHNS Continuing Certification credits (MOC) free in 2020 with your CME course and on-demand registration. MOC opt-in option is complimentary until the completion of a course.

You will be asked to pay $100 late fee if you miss the deadline and still want to claiming Continuing Certification credits (MOC) for that activity.

If you are already register to an AAOA course or an online on-demand Clinical Insight Modules but have not opt-in for MOC credit to be reported, you can call the AAOA office at 202-955-5010 during regular business hours for help.

Please email membership@aaoaallergy.org for any question you may have tied to MOC credits.