Dear Corporate Partner,

As we look toward 2026, we'd like to acknowledge your continued support of the American Academy of Otolaryngic Allergy (AAOA) and its membership, especially throughout the last few years.

Thank you for your interest in the American Academy of Otolaryngic Allergy (AAOA) and our member base. Established in 1941, AAOA is one of the largest specialty societies within otolaryngology with over 2500 members. AAOA represents the allergy, rhinology, inflammatory, and respiratory disease interests of the over 8,000 practicing US-based otolaryngologists. What makes us unique is our membership. AAOA members are predominantly general ENTs in private practice. Allergy, inflammatory, and respiratory disease are a core focus, and they bring this expertise to their group. As general ENTs, AAOA members balance their practices between the most appropriate surgical and medical interventions, striving for shared decision-making with their patients to get the best results.

For 2026, AAOA is continuing its hybrid format for all of our live educational programs. The Explorers Course 2026: Surgical & Medical Management of Airway Disease in Otolaryngology, Basic Course in Allergy & Immunology, and Annual Meeting will be virtual and in-person to give our members more access and options in how they engage. For the last 3 years our hybrid approach has increased engagement and participation. With increasing costs and reduced reimbursement, we will continue to support our members with educational choice to help them continue to meet their patients' needs.

Beyond our traditional meetings, we are expanding our offerings to open educational pathways with virtual and audio podcasts, product theaters, clinical skills workshops, demo labs, exhibits, and more. This programmatic expansion opens new opportunities for our corporate partnerships, outlined in the attached prospectus.

Our members are looking for your insights on everything from new innovations, practical issues tied to implementation, supply chains issues, and more. It is with this in mind that we offer several options for you to consider finding the right mix to assure our members better understand you and your products and services. We think this expansion will better enable you to hit your physician impact goals. We are open to your ideas too. Have a concept you want to test or a format you have used successfully with another professional medical society? Now, more than ever, we need to think out-of-the-box to help both you and the AAOA help our members.

As an ACCME-accredited, national specialty organization, AAOA is committed to delivering quality medical education programs based on the AAOA's Scope of Knowledge. Our overarching organizational mission is to deliver education intended to improve patient care. These programs are now qualified to support the American Board of Otolaryngology—Head and Neck Surgery's continuing certification requirements. Offering both CME and continuing certification increases the value of AAOA programming.

We appreciate your commitment to the AAOA and our member programs, especially our CME programs. And your partnership in finding new ways to work together to meet both our goals. We feel strongly that our corporate partners add value to our programs and help give our members the information they need to add to or enhance their ENT practice. We look forward to working together to find new ways to create information-exchange opportunities.

About AAOA

The mission of the American Academy of Otolaryngic Allergy (AAOA) is to advance the comprehensive management of allergy and inflammatory disease in Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery through training, education, and advocacy.

WHO WE ARE

As one of the largest national otolaryngology specialty societies, the AAOA represents approximately one-third of the US practicing otolaryngologists. Predominantly, private practice general otolaryngologists, our members represent the core, as empowered decision makers, complemented by members who are key leaders in academic otolaryngology. Choosing such a diverse surgical specialty, our members incorporate management of allergy and related inflammatory diseases of the respiratory tract as core to their ENT practice, blending surgical and medical management of general ENT, rhinology, laryngology, sleep, asthma, geriatric ENT, and pediatric ENT.

In addition to practicing ENT surgeons, our member-based demographic includes physician assistants, nurse practitioners, and allied health professionals who work alongside the physicians in day-to-day patient care. This increases our educational outreach to a total member base of more than 2,500 active members.

WHAT TO EXPECT

To help navigate today's patient care challenges, AAOA thinks beyond the "typical" CME event to embrace new ways to give you access to our members — your targeted demographic.

While we continue to find engagement opportunities during the in-person and live-stream components of our educational programs, we are also offering opportunities for partnership beyond our in-person or live-stream efforts to help give you year-round visibility and access.

Opportunities include:

- Corporate Advisory ThinkTank
- Web-based Resource Center
- Pharma Symposia
- Clinical Skills Hands-On Learning Lab
- Virtual Satellite Product Theater
- Podcasts — video and audio formats
- Practice Management Series Sponsorship
- Demo Labs (unique to the Explorers Course)
- In-Kind Donation for Agnostic Learning
- Practice Resource Programs
- Exhibits
- And more

Our education programs feature national and international leaders in otolaryngology, who are on the cutting-edge of clinical care affecting all practicing otolaryngologists. Topics range from allergy, asthma, rhinology, sinus surgery, laryngology, cough, otology, pediatrics, sleep, and general ENT to advances in the medical and surgical management of ENT patients.

While 2026 will continue to shed light on the emerging role of biologics in ENT and inflammatory disease management, we are also focused on new pharmacotherapy options, office-based interventions, and medical devices. There has been a shift in site of surgery options, and we are working to help our members find the best site solutions for their practice and their patients whether it is hospital, ASC, or office-based.

WHY PARTICIPATE

The vision within the AAOA’s mission is:

Otolaryngology–Head and Neck Surgery practitioners integrate the comprehensive management of allergy and inflammatory disease into daily patient care.

To support this vision, we have targeted the following goals:

- Train Otolaryngology—Head and Neck Surgeons and practices in the diagnosis, testing, and treatment of allergy and inflammatory disease.
- Lead professional societies in the innovative delivery of educational content.
- Advocate for the business and practice of managing allergy and inflammatory disease in Otolaryngology–Head and Neck Surgery

As a corporate partner, we invite you to share in our mission. Much of what AAOA is striving to achieve aligns with your corporate and product goals. Innovatively working together, we can help AAOA members and program participants expand their clinical knowledge and skills to more effectively treat their patients. In the realm of partnership, we invite you to take advantage of our 2026 corporate opportunities to focus on a well-defined, motivated, target demographic for new client development, as well as a chance to connect with existing clients. We encourage you to consider multiple formats to help assure your messaging resonates.

GOAL

Leverage the innovative thinking and information sharing between our corporate partners and the AAOA to help both reach our members more effectively.

OVERVIEW

Join the American Academy of Otolaryngic Allergy (AAOA) Corporate Advisory ThinkTank to collaborate to help develop solutions to critical challenges in the field of otolaryngology, allergy, and inflammatory disease.

OBJECTIVES

- Serve as a forum for the corporate community and AAOA to discuss key issues and their implications
- Provide a setting for discussions on technology and business trends that may impact AAOA and its corporate strategy and may impact our corporate partners and your ENT strategy
- Provide feedback to AAOA for corporate development and funding opportunities
- Provide feedback to AAOA's Advisors on key issues impacting today's otolaryngologists, their patients, and their scope of practice
- Provide access to AAOA thought leaders

The AAOA Corporate Advisory ThinkTank provides exposure to not only the 2,500 AAOA members, but insights into the broader house of otolaryngology (ENT) and current practice trends. Participation in the Corporate Advisory ThinkTank provides valuable access to the AAOA's Corporate Development Committee, Board of Directors, and key thought leaders.

AAOA's ThinkTank is open to pharmaceutical, medical device, practice management, and other ENT-focused companies. ThinkTank participating companies are invited to have 1-3 representatives sitting at the table to participate, and we encourage consideration of senior team members.

The goal of the ThinkTank is to address critical issues in otolaryngology, allergy, and inflammatory disease; find solutions to pressing challenges; share knowledge on the best practices; and advise each other on upcoming initiatives. Engaging this unique talent pool as a collective, we hope to engage in joint problem solving and exploring collaborative opportunities that can work to help AAOA members improve patient care and advance the AAOA's mission.

WHY PARTICIPATE?

ACCESS

ThinkTank participants will have unique access to key AAOA thought leaders and an opportunity to work collaboratively to improve patient care.

As one of the largest specialty societies in otolaryngology, AAOA represents more than 1/3 of the practicing general otolaryngologists. AAOA's member community is predominantly private practice general ENTs with an interest in allergy, rhinology, and inflammatory disease, who work in mid-size group practices, and serve in a decision-making role. Its members' scope of practice spans from tonsils, tubes, turbinates, and FESS to allergy, asthma, sleep, and related inflammatory and related concomitant disease. Because of our member base, AAOA thought leaders have a good understanding of the current practice trends, socioeconomic issues tied to practice, and emerging trends. Renowned for our educational programming, which offers both CME and continuing certification opportunities, AAOA has applied innovative, adult-learning principles to reinvent CME to make it more engaging and clinically relevant.

KNOWLEDGE SHARING

The ThinkTank is designed to be an out-of-the-box, unique, innovative discussion group to share knowledge and emerging trends so that we can all better address the current and pending challenges in healthcare.

BENEFITS

- 1-3 representatives from each participating corporate partner may hold a seat on the Advisory ThinkTank.
- 1-2 representatives from each participating corporate partner will be invited to the Annual Advisory ThinkTank Roundtable where pertinent issues and challenges will be discussed to help brainstorm around solutions. Note: Deadlines to confirm participation will be included with the invitation.
- Opportunities to meet with the AAOA Corporate Development Committee and key thought leaders in a closed session to share your strategic goals, opportunities, and challenges and gain AAOA thought leader insight (where possible these meetings will be hosted during live AAOA meetings).
- Recognition of your Corporate Advisory ThinkTank participation on the AAOA’s website, annually in the AAOA Today (member newsletter), and at additional opportunities such as live CME meetings.
- 1-3 complimentary subscriptions to AAOA’s scientific journal, the International Forum for Allergy & Rhinology.

AAOA Partner Resource Center

WHAT IS THE AAOA'S PARTNER RESOURCE CENTER?

The AAOA Partner Resource Center starts with an introductory portal page that highlights AAOA commercial partner participants (corporate partners, exhibitors, and sponsors), using logos to act as a lead-in traffic driver for your specific page. Akin to a virtual marketplace, your page would include your logo and key corporate and product information to build out your company/product-specific resource rich pages hosted on the AAOA website. We encourage visual content such as videos to increase impact.

Individual commercial participant pages are intended to bring forward a variety of text-based and multi-media content relevant to our members and overall audiences. This is where you and your company come in. The AAOA wants your relevant content on our website, ensuring our members and audiences can easily gain the information and non-CME knowledge they need. We offer this to help augment your reach into the general ENT community and specifically AAOA members.

As appropriate, we also want to provide commercial participant information to patients and their families via a showcase on our Patient Resources Portal, a popular and already established part of our website. Commercial participants, like you and your company, will also be able to secure a monthly email, sent by AAOA to its members on your behalf, highlighting the relevant content and an additive purchase opportunity to secure advertising space in AAOA's electronic newsletter and a showcase placement in AAOA member-focused emails.

We believe this is a win-win for you and your company and for the AAOA as we seek to bring more value to our members and their patients. We know that you seek the same, particularly in these challenging times.

WHAT KINDS OF CONTENT DOES AAOA HOPE FOR?

- Product and offering overviews that include descriptions directly targeting and speaking to the AAOA and ENT audience (and patients and their families where appropriate).

Including:

- How the products and offerings can be used/leveraged by ENTs and AAOA audiences in their practice, teaching or research activities.
- The value of the products or offerings to an ENT and ENT/Allergy Practice.
- How the products or offerings can enhance the practitioner/patient encounter.
- How the products or offerings can improve patient outcomes.
- "How to" information to help members incorporate your product into the practice (the practical side everyone needs from buy and bill, to reimbursement, and more).
- Company overview and the company's relationship with the AAOA and ENT audience.
- Directly available or via linked content; data sheets demonstrating research, trial data or similar for products and offerings to immerse the AAOA and ENT audience into your products and offerings and allow an opportunity to consume and explore research and similar content.
- Image or video content along with associated text that provides context to the AAOA and ENT audience.
- Other content, data, papers or the like that relate to your company, the company products and offerings and where and how value is delivered/provided to the ENT and AAOA audience.

To participate fill out the application on page 9 and submit with the fee to mfassnacht@aoaallergy.org.

By committing to either a corporate opportunity or exhibit, each company will get a listing in the AAOA Resource Center for free. It is mandatory to benefit companies and members!

DEMO LAB INFORMATION

UNIQUE TO THE 2026 EXPLORERS COURSE

To complement our new Explorers Course, we want to give you the opportunity to participate in our new demo lab experience in lieu of an exhibit hall. Members are looking for tools, resources, and devices to augment their practice, reduce their overhead, and improve their patient care options. By shifting from the traditional exhibit hall, our goal is to give our members some real hands-on opportunities to walk away with new skills and knowledge. And to give you more interaction with the members.

The re-design of the Explorers Course lends itself to this new demo lab concept. The intent is to offer several sessions where groups of attendees will be assigned to specific vendors to be able to get a more in-depth overview of your products and how they can positively impact patient care in the ENT office. During the 7 sessions, each company will have an opportunity to meet with each attendee, including the virtual attendees.

Our intention with the demo labs is to design more engagement with small groups to help you share all the benefits of your product(s), while our members hear the questions their peers have for more implementation takeaways.

For Explorers, our intention is to offer only

- Satellite Product Theaters
- Stand Alone Clinical Skills Workshops
- Concurrent Demo Labs (7 sessions targeted); replaces the typical Exhibit Hall.

Here is how it would work.

- Price $5000; 6x6 space; AV, Hardwire, WiFi, electric, etc additional
- 7 concurrent demo labs would be offered throughout the program
- During Registration 1/22
 - Pre lectures & mid lectures during morning sessions 1/23
 - Pre lectures & mid lectures during afternoon sessions 1/23
 - Pre lectures & mid lectures during morning sessions 1/24
- 10-15 Attendees will be grouped & assigned a demo lab rotation to ensure every attendee has an opportunity to learn from each corporate Demo Lab partner
- Every Demo Lab partner will be assigned a time to meet with the virtual registrants to assure they have exposure to you and vice versa
- Based on interest and space, we will define how many concurrent Demo Labs will run during each session
- Every Demo Lab will have a virtual exhibit on the AAOA meeting App
- Explorers opens with virtual prework Dec 22; Live is at the Fairmont Sonoma Mission Inn Jan 22-24; Post live content and virtual exhibit access is open until March 23 — 90 days of outreach opportunity.

For the 7 30-min concurrent sessions, based on participation will be either

- 14 15-min segments or 2 per 30 min demo lab session
- 21 10-min segments or 3 per 30 min demo lab session

Our goal is to make this more interactive for both you and our members. Each of our corporate partners has a product, service, or device that can impact our members' practices. This new approach offers a more engaging approach to sharing your product information and what makes you unique. Additionally, it gives our members some takeaways to implement.

AAOA's Explorers Course 2026: Surgical & Medical Management of Airway Disease in Otolaryngology builds on the curricula of the Basic and highlights 1 or 2 clinical hot topics. 2026 will highlight rhinology/skull base surgery and laryngology/cough. Typically, the Explorers Course 2026: Surgical & Medical Management of Airway Disease in Otolaryngology draws a similar mix of practicing otolaryngologists and AP/AH attendees with a higher percentage of practicing physician.

NON-CME OPPORTUNITIES

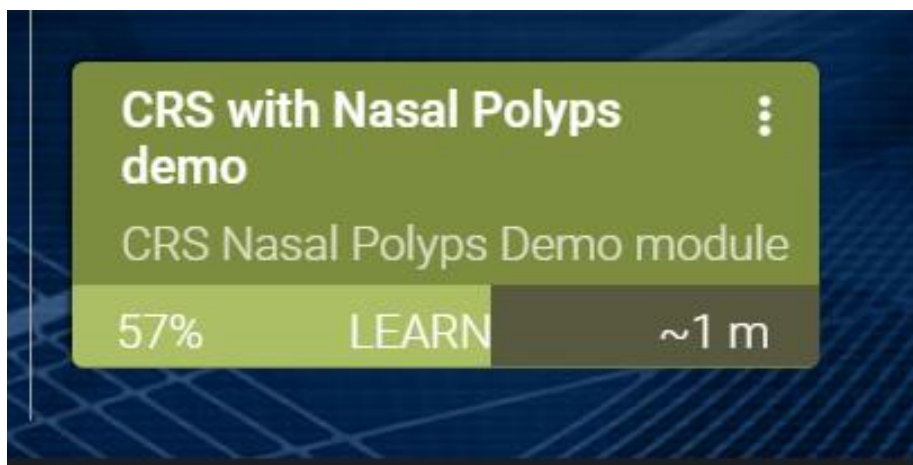

In addition to the promotional and exhibit opportunities tied to our live CME programs, the AAOA is very interested in exploring opportunities that go beyond our CME audience and reach our full membership. As healthcare is evolving with more practice management challenges and improved pathways for integrated care, we have unique opportunities to collaborate together to help expand our resource pool and value to our members.

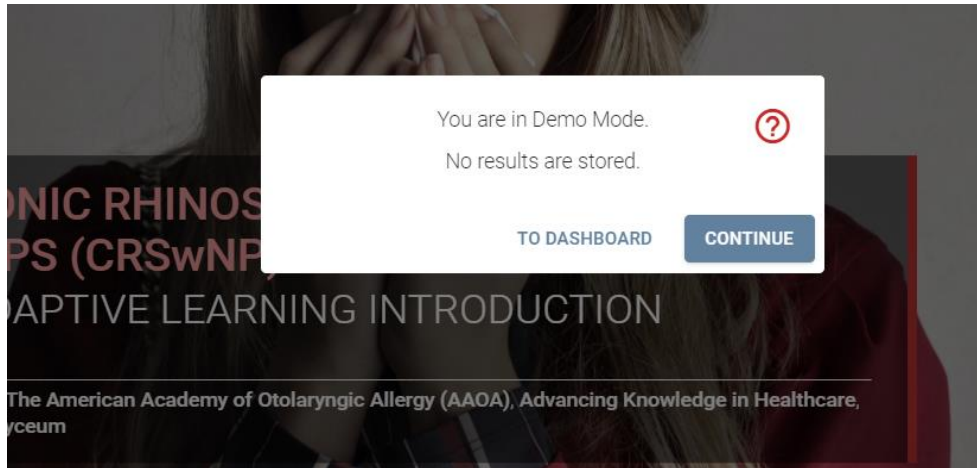

AAOA's digital platform www.AAOAllergy.org offers some great opportunities to gain visibility through sponsorship. We are continuing our digital redevelopment to expand our patient education, practice management, and enduring CME tools and resources for our members. Within this construct, we would be happy to discuss partnership opportunities.

There is a growing need for resources to help complement continuing education. Tools to help ENTs better understand the role for biologics in patient care, AAOA's new microlearning tool on allergy emergencies (in development), insights (video, podcast) into how antigens are harvested and produced, practice management resources on onboarding new physicians/staff, building the right staff culture, immunotherapy patient compliance, building your practice post COVID, and understanding revenue streams are just a few ideas.

In prior years, we have partnered with our corporate colleagues to develop:

- Unrestricted educational grants to support an AAOA educational activity
- The Allergy and Asthma Primers, which were supplemented in publications in our journal, International Forum on Allergy & Rhinology
- The Clinical Insights Modules for online education, which offer interactive, case-based eLearning designed to expand understanding of current practice trends and clinical research in allergy diagnosis and management
- The AAOA Foundation's Clinical Scholars program, intended to encourage and facilitate resident research and authorship
- Digital re-design to expand Patient Care Resources - www.AAOAllergy.org
- AAOA Podcasts - <https://aaoallergy.org/category/aaoa-podcast/>
- Shared Decision-Making Tools
- Adaptive Learning Modules with Area9, images of an example are below

Working in partnership, we can identify needs and develop resources for our members.

Please contact Marina Fassnacht at mfassnacht@aaoallergy.org or (202) 955-5010 ext.500 for additional information on non-CME opportunities.
